

Peanut Butter

Fun Facts

November Is National Peanut Butter Lovers' Month...Here Are A Few Reasons Why!

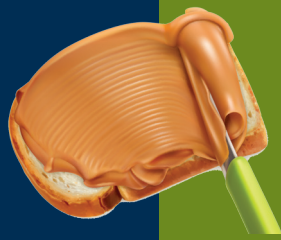

Half of all peanuts eaten in the US are eaten as peanut butter!

It takes about 540 peanuts to make one 12 oz jar of peanut butter!

The typical American kid will eat 1,500 peanut butter sandwiches by the time he or she graduates from high school.

To be labeled peanut butter, a product must be at least 90% peanuts.

90% of American households eat peanut butter, and women and children prefer the creamy variety.

A 2014 Huffington Post poll found that 36% of people preferred strawberry jam with their peanut butter (grape was 31%).

Four of the top 10 candy bars made in the United States contain peanuts or peanut butter.

On average, farmers can grow about 4,000 lbs. of peanuts per acre!